Patrick C. Forde Good Person Memorial Award

Background:

In 2005, Needham resident and community activist Patrick Forde passed away unexpectedly at the age of 51. Patrick was a person who cared deeply about Needham and about youth and families. His community involvement included being a Town Meeting member as well as the Commissioner of Trust Funds. He devoted countless hours to young people as a coach, working with Charles River ARC, and with the Boy Scouts. He was a gentle man who drew great joy from being helpful to others. Above all, Patrick was best known for being a “good person.” He was someone that others could rely on to lend a supportive ear or word.

Patrick was extremely supportive of the work of Needham Youth Services and understood the importance of families and of the healthy growth of youth. In an effort to honor Patrick, this award has been established by Needham Youth Services and will be given annually to a Needham resident who embodies his spirit.

Goal:

This award will recognize an adult in the community who has helped make Needham a better place to live through his/her volunteer work and commitment. The recipient will be a person of high character, a person who has contributed in some significant way to Needham children, youth, and/or families, and a person who has enhanced those with whom they interacted. This award is a recognition that through volunteerism and caring, each person in our community is able to enhance Needham.

- Be a Needham resident
- Be at least 21 years of age
